7TH BRICS STUDENTS MEET AND ABBS CONFERENCE

“RISKS AND THREATS TO THE BRICS ECONOMIES”

ORGANIZED BY ASSOCIATION OF BRICS BUSINESS SCHOOLS (ABBS)

The BRICS Students Meets bring together MBA students from member institutions in BRICS in a forum featuring a variety of activities such as presentations by student delegates, business games, a quiz contest, debating competition, cultural program of culture, music and dance staged by participants to project the vast diversity that characterizes BRICS.

This year the seventh BRICS Student Meet is organized in Moscow and hosted by the Network AML/CFT Institute.

Memorandum of understanding between Network Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) Institute and the Association of BRICS Business Schools (ABBS) has been signed in Paris, February 2014.

Deep financial/economic crisis and urgent need in creating a variety of financial institution, focusing more on growing economies, such as BRICS, defines a complete new agenda for business education, intellectual and economical partnership between countries. This makes the conference on “Risks and threats to the BRICS Economies” timely and relevant event, helping to shape new frames of business-education. Partnership with the Network AML/CFT Institute opens many opportunities for cooperation, academic mobility of students and professors and principally new way of business education international cooperation the sphere of AML/CFT.
